

EXETER & DISTRICT CALEDONIAN SOCIETY

The General Data Protection Regulation comes into effect from 25th May, 2018 and this requires each individual of an organisation, club etc such as our Society to give their permission for their details to be recorded electronically, unless they do so, they cannot be contacted by e mail or their personal details given to other members.

As you may be aware the law relating to Data Protection has recently changed and we will require your permission to record your correct details and you are happy to use and share these details with the other members of the Society. We will not share this information with anyone else. We will only be using your details to add to our Contact List and we will only contact you on matters relating to the Society.
